

Blue's News

Hello Everyone!

I'm a hot dog. No, I really am.

Whilst the weather has been scorching this week, I've had to be careful as dogs can really suffer in hot weather. Luckily, the children who walk me at lunchtime with Mr Hitchins have noticed this and made sure that I only walk under the shady trees at the edge of the field. They've also been visiting me through the day to check I have plenty of water. Mr Hitchins put this strange cream on my nose this week, to stop it burning! That sounds like it could be painful - make sure you've all got yours on as well!

I was at the top gate this week and I made lots of new friends. No sign of that cat! All the children at our school know not to run up to me, or stroke me without asking, but I have to watch out for little brothers and sisters who sometimes don't know this and make me jump.

Hope you have a great weekend. I'll be on the hunt for dropped barbeque sausages and prepping myself for Healthy Schools Week!
